Fair Board will meet on July 17 after final fair clean-up to hear any requests 4-H members may have to be absent from the judging, food and livestock sales. This needs to be done in order for someone to take a 4-H members place at the judging and the auctions and still receive the premium. Due to COVID-19 fair board will be relaxed on this policy for 2020.

4-H Fashion

Revue

Theme: "TGIF – Thank Goodness It's Fair Time"

This year the judging will be held July 21, at 2:00 p.m. at Extension Office Meeting Room, Grainfield, and Public Revue will be Wednesday, July 22nd at 7 p.m. at the 4-H Building.

Cost Per Wear Forms are required for Senior division and recommended for Junior & Intermediate division. Include a 4 x 6 picture of exhibitor in outfit & fabric swatch if constructed with entry.

The fashion revue contest has two major sections.

First section: Buymanship Garments Revue are for any 4-H member who wishes to purchase an outfit and model it. Those in the buymanship contest, will appear only once before the judge wearing your outfits. You will need to fill out the top half of a Clothing and Textiles Presentation Evaluation Score Card prior to the judging. You will need to bring entry card, picture, and scorecard to the judges table when you model. To be eligible for State Fair Buymanship Revue you must be enrolled in Clothing Buymanship, have been declared a winner at county level and must be 14 years of age, but not yet 19. Alternates may participate if winners cannot attend.

Second section: Constructed Garment Revue for any 4-H member enrolled in the Clothing Construction project. Those members in construction will also need to fill out the same forms and be prepared to hand them to the judges. Ages 14 and older will be expected to fill out the information on estimated cost per wear on the garment. To be eligible for State Fair Constructed Garments Revue, you must have been declared a winner at county level and must be 14 years of age, but not yet 19 before January 1 of current year. Alternates may participate if winner cannot attend.

You may pick up the number of forms you need at our office. One sheet (Clothing and Textiles Presentation Evaluation Score Card) is being enclosed for you so you will know the kind of information you will need. Information on figuring cost per wear of the garment is included.

When you get your fair books, be sure to read this section over carefully.

Please return the pink & blue sheets filled out by July 13th, for the Buymanship Garments Revue (boys & girls). No pink & blue forms will be accepted after July 15th.

There is one Fashion Revue Score Card, Cost Per Wear Form, Clothing & Textiles Evaluation, and instructions for figuring cost per wear per family included in this newsletter. Please feel free to make copies & fill out for each outfit.

Forms need to be returned promptly so the committee can prepare the script. Please write up your description the way you want it read.

If you are interested in being a narrator for style revue, please check the blank on your sheet or call the office.

Food Stand

Main Street Dugout will be charge of our 2020 food stand. Please be patient and kind as they work through their first year! They will also be serving the BBQ meal due to COVID-19. Please pay all tabs at lunch stand daily.

4-H Food Sale

The food sale will be Wednesday, July 23, during the Public Style Revue. It is very important for each 4-Her to seek two buyers to come to the sale in order to keep the prices up where you'd like to see them.

In order to be ready for the sale the first evening, we are asking each 4-H member to bring two flats or boxes (cakes and pies from the cake and pie contests and cookie jars not selected to sell at the livestock auction may be included in these flats.)

Please bring flats on Wednesday morning for the food sale, with your name marked on them.

Guidelines for the sale will be as follows:

1. 4-H members must be present to sell unless you have petitioned the 4-H Fair Board for an excused absence on Friday, July 19, following final cleanup
2. 4-H members may sell only two flats or boxes of food he or she is enrolled in. Remember, food that is judged cannot be sold in the auction, you will need separate items to sell. (Ex. Cake being judged gets a piece cut out, the rest of that cake cannot go into the auction, you must take it home). Recipes are required for all exhibits. Please include 2 – one for judge and one for Food Sale Buyer.
3. 4-Her's should designate at the time of judging if they wish to sell their food.
4. A portion of the product will remain on display for the remainder of the fair.
5. If you are making cookies or cupcakes, you will need to bring an extra dozen or two to give your buyer something to buy. They need to get something for the money they are spending.

Please make sure that your entries arrive by the designated entry time to eliminate any penalties for being late.

Entry Cards

Entry cards will be printed at Extension Office and be available for pickup on the first day of fair. Cards will be sorted by Family.
